

SOFTWARE ENHANCEMENT - DATE PROFILE (D61)

The following software will be in production on Wednesday, August 9, 2000:

The R*STARS current Date Profile (D61) defines all valid dates in the system. This profile will have one new holiday indicator, which will be the Federal Reserve Holiday. Also, there will be two new pay date indicators which will be State Payroll and Retirement. These changes will not have any impact on users.
